

What to Bring to Band Camp

- ♫ MANDATORY positive attitude!
- ♫ MANDATORY – eat breakfast (ex: cereal, pancakes, waffles, eggs, bacon, sausage, protein bar, granola, and juice) and drink a glass of water.– if you skip breakfast and don't start the day with a glass of water, you will pass out!!!!!!!!!!
- ♫ MANDATORY lyre and flip folder (get those at your local music store) PUT YOUR NAME ON IT
- ♫ MANDATORY wide-mouth ½ gallon water bottle with handle (Coleman igloo, etc.). PUT YOUR NAME ON IT and SECTION.
- ♫ MANDATORY: Light colored, modest clothing – NO DARK COLORED SHIRTS!!!
- ♫ Instrument and adequate supplies: reeds, cleaning stuff, etc.
- ♫ Bandana and/or towel
- ♫ Tennis shoes with good arch support (we always march in tennis shoes) – make sure it's okay to get these dirty!
- ♫ Hat and sunglasses
- ♫ Sunscreen – put it on before you get to camp each morning.
- ♫ Travel deodorant that can be reapplied.
- ♫ Rain gear]
- ♫ Draw string bag to carry music, sunscreen, towel, rain gear, hat and sunglasses to and from the field – Helps keep your stuff together! PUT YOUR NAME ON IT.
- ♫ Prescription meds and Over-the-counter meds (all meds must be recorded by Mr. Minor if needed during the day at camp)
- ♫ Sack lunch for each day (unless otherwise directed). Pack in a cooler or insulated lunch bag. Lunches will be stored inside the building.
- ♫ Snacks will be provided out on the field during breaks.
- ♫ First-Aid bag will be with adult chaperons at the break station – see them if you have a medical need. (sunburn, blister, headache, stomachache)
